

Kids Help Phone

- Kids Help Phone, is Canada's only free, professional counselling service available for youth in every Canadian community. It provides anonymous phone and online counselling and referral and information services for children and youth. Founded May 16, 1989, the service provides counselling to youth who seek it by calling a toll-free number or posting anonymously on their website. This site is available for all youth but we the staff at WMS do ask parents to be aware of the material on the website. There are some items you may wish to discuss with your children. (1-800-668-6868)